1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The subject matter of the claims is allowable over the prior art of record because all prior arts fail to teach or suggest an inter-domain mobility management method, comprising: (a) a mobile H.323 entity communicating information related to the mobile entity with a first gatekeeper in a first administration domain; (b) the first gatekeeper being unable to verify information on said mobile 14.323 entity and sending information to a first border element within the first administration domain; (c) the first border element communicating information with a second border element in a second administrative domain to resolve the information related to the mobile entity; (d) the second border element communicates back with the first border element with information to resolve the information related to the mobile entity; (e) the second border element accepting the resolved information related to the mobile entity and communicates the information with said mobile H.323 entity via the first gatekeeper.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

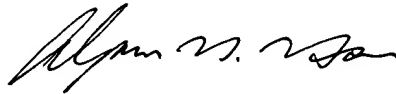

2. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alpus H. Hsu whose telephone number is (571)272-3146. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (5:30-3:00) First Friday Off.
